WORKBOOK SAMPLE

Marketing Momentum Workshop

This participant workbook is designed to help attendees clarify their marketing priorities, identify their highest-leverage channel, and leave with actionable next steps.

Why are you here?

Start by naming the challenge or opportunity that brought you to this workshop. The more specific you are, the easier it will be to identify meaningful next steps.

Current reality check

Briefly describe what your marketing currently looks like. Are you posting inconsistently, unsure which channel to prioritize, or struggling to turn effort into momentum?

Action cue: Try to name the real bottleneck as clearly as possible. Is it clarity, consistency, confidence, capacity, or something else?

GOAL CLARITY

Define Your 90-Day Marketing Goal

Before choosing a strategy, define the outcome you want. A focused goal creates direction for the rest of your decisions.

Your primary goal

What is the single most important marketing outcome you want over the next 90 days?

Why this goal matters

What would change for you or your business if you achieved this goal? Why is it worth prioritizing now?

Success markers

How will you know you're making progress? List 2–3 signs that momentum is building.

CHANNEL LEVERAGE

Channel Clarity Exercise

Momentum often stalls when attention is spread too thin. Use this page to identify the one channel that deserves your strongest focus.

Where does your audience already pay attention?

Which channel feels most natural for how you communicate?

Which channel best supports your current goal?

Which channel can you realistically sustain each week?

Your primary channel

Based on your answers above, what is the one channel you will prioritize for the next 90 days?

Action cue: Choosing one primary channel does not mean ignoring everything else forever. It means creating enough focus to build traction.

CONSISTENCY PLANNING

Create Your Weekly Marketing Rhythm

Momentum is usually the result of repeatable actions. Use this page to map out a simple, realistic rhythm you can actually follow.

Content creation day

Publishing / posting day

Audience engagement block

Review and improvement time

Consistency barrier

What usually interrupts your rhythm? Identify the habit, belief, or practical issue that most often gets in the way.

Action cue: Build a plan simple enough to repeat, not perfect enough to admire.

48-HOUR ACTION PLAN

Turn Insight Into Action

The fastest way to create momentum is to move quickly on one meaningful next step. Use this page to define what happens in the next 48 hours.

Your next action

What is one concrete action you will complete in the next 48 hours?

What support or resource do you need?

Identify any tool, person, template, or block of time you need to follow through successfully.
